3rd International Conference on Science and Sustainable Development ICSSD 2019

We invite you to participate in 3rd International Conference on Science and Sustainable Development which is multidisciplinary in nature. The theme of the conference is Science, Technology and Research: Keys to Sustainable Development. The conference will take place at Centre for Research, Innovation and Discovery, Covenant University, Ota, Ogun State, Nigeria between 6th and 8th May 2019. The conference will provide an international forum for Experts, Researchers, Industrialists, Scholars, Students, etc. in the fields of Science, Engineering, Social Sciences and related fields in relation to sustainability to present their findings. Executives from Industries, Research Institutes and Educational Bodies can share and publicize their research works, developmental activities and innovations on the theme of the conference.

According to Asheim (1994) development is sustainable if it involves a non-decreasing average quality of life. This conference brings together the global thought leaders and innovators to discuss real-world issues, tackle intricate problems and find novel enabling solutions by synthesizing the concept of sustainability and in science, technology and research.

CALL FOR PAPERS

The aim of ICSSD2019 is to provide an excellent opportunity for the young researchers and academics to expose their works to international scrutiny, receive feedback from peers from different parts of the world, gain from the vast experience and expertise of the leaders in the field of research and to open up the scope for new research collaborations among the international, national community of participants and invited delegates.

Only original and previously unpublished work on a range of topics related to the conference sub-theme will be accepted. The conference welcomes paper submissions from researchers, practitioners, academia and students, and will cover myriad tracks in the field of Science, Engineering, Social Sciences as well as interdisciplinary research and applications, but not limited to, the following:
